

Practice Purchases and Sales

Every Dentist who is planning to purchase or sell a dental practice needs to have an experienced dental practice attorney who can ensure that all negotiations and documents are prepared with their best interests in mind and protecting them from unwanted results. Attorney Brian Hatch represents dentists from the appraisal of a practice for valuation purposes through the closing.

These are some of the services that Hatch Legal Group can provide:

- Matching up Buyers and Sellers
- Valuation of practices
- Negotiation of the price
- Seeking out a lender working closely with dental practices
- Drafting a letter of intent
- Doing due diligence before documents are signed
- Drafting a purchase and sale agreement
- Negotiating a lease or purchase of property
- Conducting the closing
